Accommodation Guide

The Princess Alexandra Hospital (PAH) is in Brisbane, Queensland, Australia. www.metrosouth.health.qld.gov.au/hospital-and-health-centres/princess-alexandra-hospital

It is 4 kms from Brisbane's Central Business District and 18 kms from the Brisbane Airport. Patients from all over Queensland and further away are referred here for their specialist medical treatments.

Patients and their families often travel long distances to the PAH. You may need to find accommodation. Some choices are motels, hotels, apartments, holiday parks, cabins, and private rentals.

Things to consider:

- Costs, including weekly or monthly rates
- Bulk Billed Travel Subsidy
- Office hours
- Accessibility
- Parking

- Kitchen, laundry and other facilities
- Near public transport
- Near other important facilities
- Payment arrangements.

Accommodation and Travel Subsidy Schemes

Each State and Territory has their own subsidy scheme. It offers financial support for patients referred for specialist medical treatment. This care must not be available within 50 km of their closest public hospital or public health facility. It can help with the cost of your accommodation and travel. Talk to your local Patient Travel Office to find out more.
