

Request for national criminal history check

Guide, Hearing and Assistance Dogs Act 2009 (the Act), Sections 15 and 59

General information

The Guide, Hearing and Assistance Dogs Act 2009 (the Act) requires people applying for approval as a guide, hearing or assistance dog trainer or an employee trainer of a training institution applying for approval, to disclose whether or not they have a criminal history.

The Act also requires approved guide, hearing or assistance dog trainers and employee trainers of approved training institutions to disclose if there is a change in their criminal history.

Definition of criminal history

The Act defines 'criminal history' as the convictions, apart from spent convictions, recorded against a person for offences in Queensland or elsewhere, whether before or after the commencement of the Act. 'Conviction' is defined as a court's finding of guilt or acceptance of a guilty plea, by a court.

The Criminal Code Act 1899 further defines 'spent conviction' as a conviction:

- for which the rehabilitation period under the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986 has expired under that Act; and
- that is not revived as is prescribed by section 11 of the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986.
