Glossary

*Birth Parent: is a person who is recognised at law as being a parent of the child at the time the child is born.

Cultural Parent: is a person who, in accordance with Ailan Kastom child rearing practice, agrees to accept the permanent transfer of the parental rights and responsibility for a child from the child’s Birth Parents to the person.

Informed Person: is a person who has knowledge and understanding of the specific Ailan Kastom child rearing practice that occurred in relation to the application and can verify that the cultural transfer of parentage in relation to the subject child occurred in accordance with Ailan Kastom.

* Other Carer: is a person other than the child’s Birth Parent or Cultural Parent who has the right and responsibility to make decisions about the child’s daily care under legislation other than this Act or the Child Protection Act 1999 – i.e. someone who is not a Birth or Cultural Parent but has parental rights (for example a grandparent of the subject child may have family law orders providing for parental responsibility or contact). This is to ensure that person who holds those rights is also informed of and consents to this application.

Authorised Witness: means a barrister, solicitor, notary public, commissioner for declarations, justice of the peace or a person who has known the person making the statement for at least 1 year and who has no other involvement in this application.

Part 7: Addendum to Application for Cultural Recognition Order

Form 2 – Addendum to application for a Cultural Recognition Order. Version 3 – 25 May 2023 Meriba Omasker Kaziw Kazipa (Torres Strait Islander Traditional Child Rearing Practice) Act 2020

This form is for use:

- a) by Cultural Parent/s' for applications relating to children, and
- b) applicants for applications relating to an adult applicants.

Purpose of this form and collection notice

The information collected in this form will be shared by the Commissioner with the Registrar-General of the Queensland Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages to ensure that following the making of a Cultural Recognition Order, the Registrar can correct the register to ensure that any subsequent birth certificate about that person includes information necessary to accurately reflect the change in parentage from the Birth Parents to Cultural Parents.

The information collected in this form will only be provided to the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages if a Cultural Recognition Order is made.

Whilst there is no obligation to provide the information below with any application for a Cultural Recognition Order, any sections left blank or incomplete in this form may not be updated by the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages. This may lead to certain parts of a birth certificate appearing incomplete. The information provided on this form should reflect the situation at the time of the child or adult applicant's birth.

All information obtained in this application and decision-making process will be managed in accordance with the Information Privacy Principles described in the Information Privacy Act 2009.

Signing

This form must be signed by:

- a) each Cultural Parent for applications relating to children, and
- b) applicants for applications relating to an adult.

This form does not need to be witnessed.

Authorisation

By providing the information contained in this form you are authorising:

- a) the Commissioner to provide the information contained in this form to the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages, and
- b) the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages to correct the registry to include the information contained in this form.

Important information

1. Making this application

In signing this form, you are consenting to an application being made to the Commissioner (Meriba Omasker Kaziw Kazipa) (the Commissioner) to consider and decide to make, or not to make, a Cultural Recognition Order.

The Commissioner must notify the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages (RBDM) as soon as practicable after the making of a Cultural Recognition Order.

Once notice is received by RBDM, the transfer of parentage from the Birth Parent's to the Cultural Parent's and any name change for the child or adult will be registered. The details contained within the Cultural Recognition Order will be reflected in any new birth certificate issued and the original birth record will be closed.

The effect of the Cultural Recognition Order is that:

- the person's parentage is transferred from the Birth Parent's to the Cultural Parent's
- the person becomes a child of the Cultural Parent's
- the Cultural Parent's become the parents of the person
- the person stops being a child of the Birth Parent's, and
- a Birth Parent stops being a parent of the person.

This is a permanent transfer of parentage and once the order is made, can only be discharged by the Childrens Court. Due to the significance of this order the full, free and informed consent of all parties to the application is required.

2. Authorised Witness

An Authorised Witness must witness all parties' signatures to this application.

An Authorised Witness is defined in the Meriba Omasker Kaziw Kazipa (Torres Strait Islander Traditional Child Rearing Practice) Regulation 2021 as:

- a barrister, solicitor or notary public
- commissioner for declarations
- a justice of the peace, or
- a person who has known the person signing the statement for at least 1 year and who has no other involvement in this application.

3. Withdrawing this application

An application may be withdrawn by an applicant at any stage before the Cultural Recognition Order is made by giving written notice to the Commissioner. Upon receipt of the notice of withdrawal by the Commissioner, the application ends.

The Commissioner must give all applicants to the application notice the application is withdrawn.

If you intend to withdraw this application or revoke your consent, please provide the written notice of your decision by email or post to the Office of the Commissioner (Meriba Omasker Kaziw Kazipa) at PO Box 7576, Cairns, Queensland 4870 or office@ocmokk.qld.gov.au as soon as possible.

4. New birth certificate details

If the Commissioner decides to make a Cultural Recognition Order, information provided in this application form will be provided by the Commissioner to the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

This information will include:

- the Place of the subject person
- the desired name of the subject person following the making of a Cultural Recognition Order
- the Place of the Cultural Parents
- the occupation of the Cultural Parents
- any relevant maiden name of a Cultural Parent
- the informant of the birth.

This information will be used and shared in order for the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages to issue a new birth certificate to reflect that change in parentage from the Birth Parent/s to the Cultural Parent/s.

5. Legal advice

Parties to this application may wish to obtain their own independent legal advice.

You may be able to access free legal advice in relation to making an application for a Cultural Recognition Order from the following services.

- Legal Aid Queensland
– website: www.legalaid.qld.gov.au or phone: 1300 650 143 (Indigenous Hotline)
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Service
– website: www.atsils.org.au or phone: 1800 012 255 (Toll free 24hrs 7 days)
- Queensland Indigenous Family Violence Legal Service
– website: www.qifvls.com.au or phone: 1800 887 700 (free call).

If you haven't already, we recommend you obtain independent legal advice about this order as soon as possible.

6. Family wellbeing services

There are various counselling and support services available if additional support is sought. A list of services, their contact details and locations are available on the Queensland Government website: <https://www.qld.gov.au/firstnations/family-social-support/torres-strait-islander-traditional-child-rearing-practice/apply-cultural-recognition-order>.

7. Proof of identity documentation

The Commissioner must be able to confirm the identity of the parties to an application. This is so the Commissioner can be satisfied that the required statements have been provided by the relevant parties. The Commissioner will only be able to process the application for a Cultural Recognition Order, once the Commissioner is satisfied about the identities of the relevant parties.

The proof of identity documentation requirements in the Schedule to this form are requested by the Commissioner in line with section 32(5) and 34(3) of the Act.

8. Privacy notice

In accordance with the Act, the Commissioner is authorised to collect the information requested on this form to decide whether a Cultural Recognition Order is in the wellbeing and best interests of the person to whom the application relates. Your personal information will not be released, except where such release is required and permitted under the Act. For example:

The Commissioner may need to release personal information of a Cultural Parent to Queensland Police Services for the purposes of requesting a criminal history check.

The Commissioner may need to release personal information to the informed person in an application to undertake the necessary enquiries in determining whether a Cultural Recognition Order is made.

Personal information may need to be shared between applicant's for example if the Commissioner decides not to make a Cultural Recognition Order for reasons that relate to one particular applicant, the Commissioner may need to release that information to the other applicants in a statement of reasons why the order has not been made. There may be other situations in which the Commissioner needs to share information with organisations such as Queensland Police Services, the Department of Families, Seniors, Disability Services and Child Safety, the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages or relevant court or tribunal as is permitted, authorised or required under the Act or any other state or federal law.

All information obtained in this application and decision-making process will be managed in accordance with the Information Privacy Principles described in the Information Privacy Act 2009.

Identification documents provided with an application will be used by the Commissioner to verify that relevant parties to an application are who they claim to be.
